B Fusion of Japanese Traditions
and Summer Ecology

Marugame Uchiwa round paper fans were first made as souvenirs for pilgrims who came from all over the country to visit Kompira Shrine and now Marugame produces around 90% of Uchiwa in Japan. Many types of Uchiwa fans are sold and you can choose anything you like from traditional types of Uchiwa to modern ones. At "Uchiwa no Minato" Paper Fan Museum and Uchiwa Workshop "Take" you can experience how to make Uchiwa.

 Beautiful Rice-Ball-Triangle Shaped Mountain

Mt. Iinoyama, 422 meters above sea level, has another name "Sanuki Fuji (Mt. Fuji in Kagawa)" because of its shape. It is a nice mountain to climb and it will take an hour to climb up to the top.

Marugame's Local Gourmet

- Take a Big Bite into it!

Grilled chicken with bone called "Honetsuki-Dori" is Marugame originated local gourmet. After being seasoned with special spices, the chicken legs are grilled in the oven. Honetsuki-Dori restaurants generally serve "Hina-Dori (young chicken)" and "Oya-Dori (parent chicken)". The chicken tastes spicy and it will add you.

Eating Udon in the home of Udon is the best!

"Sanuki Udon" is a type of noodles and its texture is firm and chewy. There is an abundant Udon menu such as like "Bukkake Udon" and "Kama-age Udon". The types of Udon restaurants are generally divided into following types; sit-down restaurants, self-service restaurants and noodle factories which serve Udon.

Simple Recipe but Tastes Good

“Shoyu-Mame (Soy Sauce Soaked Beans)” is one of the traditional local dishes. Roasted fava beans are soaked in the original sauce made with soy sauce and sugar etc. It goes well with Japanese dinner or goes well with alcohol.
